CLASSICS WITH A TWIST

CLASSICS AND THEIR HISTORY

WATER LILLY 15

Hendricks, Creme De Violettes, Cointreau, lemon

Inspired by the serene beauty of Monet's famous painting - The Water Lilly, first crafted in 2007 by Richard Boccardo at Milk & Honey, NYC. A modern classic that layers a delicate perfume of violettes with brightness of citrus together in elegant harmony with the botanical depth of the gin making it as timeless as the art that inspired it.

DAMN THE WEATHER 15

No3 London Dry gin, Martini Rubino, Cointreau, fresh orange juice

Born in the Prohibition era of 1930s and perfected by legendary bartender Harry Craddock, the creator of Savoy Cocktail Book. Damn the Weather is a citrusy, bittersweet refuge from gloomy days which offers a rich yet refreshing balance, proving that even bad weather deserves a good drink.

RUSTY NAIL 15

Singleton 12y, Drambuie, orange

The Rusty Nail earned its place in cocktail history as the drink of choice for the Rat Pack and suave Scotch lovers of the mid-20th century. It gained fame in New York's high-end lounges, embodying effortless sophistication with its smooth, honeyed depth. A true classic, it remains the perfect sip for those who appreciate understated elegance.

GODFATHER 15

Monkey Shoulder, Saliza Amaretto

Named after the iconic film, the Godfather exudes old-school charisma and quiet power. Beloved in the 70s and rumored to be a favorite of Marlon Brando, it became a symbol of refined simplicity. With its smooth, subtly sweet character, it remains a timeless nod to classic Hollywood.

BOBBY BURNS 15

Chivas 12y, Martini Rubino, Dom Benedictine

A tribute to Scotland's beloved poet, the Bobby Burns cocktail embodies literary elegance and whisky-fueled inspiration. Emerging from early 20th century cocktail culture, it became a staple in sophisticated bars, offering a toast to the spirit of Robert Burns. Rich, smooth, and slightly herbal, it remains a window into Scotland's poetic soul.
