

TRICK OR TREAT

SEABIRD

Hey boo, want to play a game? This is Trick or Treat, Seabird-style. Knock on our door by having a drink with us tonight and you could walk away without paying for a single tippie. Lose our Halloween game, however, and we'll ask you (very politely) to scare up the cash. Good luck...

How it works

1. We'll deal you three cards, face down. A member of our bar team will reveal the first card and you have to guess if the next will be higher, lower or equal until all the cards are turned over.
2. Guess two correctly, and you go ghoulish – we'll take care of the drinks. Two or more incorrect guesses and life's a witch (just to be clear, that means you're paying your bill – trick).

All set? We'll deal you in when you're ready to settle up, so turn the page, choose your poison and we'll see you on the other side...
