161 Rooms

Our 161 bedrooms are inspired by both classical and modern Florentine design – drawing from the building’s colourful history. They’re designed to suit any kind of stay, from the compact Snug and Cosy right up to Roomy, Biggy, Studio and Studio Up. Hox House, meanwhile, covers self-contained apartments for longer Florence getaways.

Hosting a meeting or party?

Fancy curating a Florentine event? La Riserva, our unique basement events space in the heart of the city, is here to help with all your work or post-work special occasion needs. Parties, away days, seminars, cocktail parties: we can do it all.

No rip-off policy

Our rooms have everything you need and nothing you don't. Everyone gets water, fresh milk, coffee and tea, and a fridge that's yours to stock with snacks and drinks from our Hox Shop, where you'll find beers, wines and soft drinks at supermarket prices.

Feelin' peckish?

For a Med-inspired menu served with Tuscan flair, head to our Italian restaurant, Alassio: home of carefree Riviera vibes (and tasty seafood dishes). Then it's time to let your hair down at Enoteca Violetta, our laid-back neighbourhood wine bar complete with local vino and small plates.

The neighbourhood

The Piazza della Libertà neighbourhood is a short amble from Florence's historic centre, including the Duomo cathedral and grand Palazzo Pitti. It's home to a strong creative community, with artists and students alike drawn to its lively squares and narrow cobblestone streets. Michelangelo's David of Florence may be a mere 15-minute walk away, but you'll be equally wowed by the local galleries, boutiques, cafés, bakeries and gardens – all just moments from the hotel.

Did you know?

Florence is the birthplace of the piano, invented in 1700 by Bartolomeo Cristofori– who was hired as chief instrument maker at the Florentine court of Cosimo III de' Medici. Three pianos by Cristofori survive in various locations worldwide.

How to get here

We're a 20-minute stroll or six-minute taxi ride from Florence's main train station: Firenze Santa Maria Novella. You can also catch a bus on lines 7 or 11 from outside the station, and get off at L. Il Magnifico Liberta': we're a four-minute walk away.
