The Library Bar

The Library Bar, perched just above the bustle of the city at The Hoxton, is a reimagined Dublin classic. A fresh take on the much-loved original, The Library Bardelivers timeless character and fireside warmth, setting the scene for everything from intimate gatherings to lively celebrations.

By day, it's an intentionally unconventional space. Creative meetings, off-sites, and standout client presentations feel at home here, as do informal team training days and photo shoots that call for a room with a bit of personality.

Come evening, the space turns decadent. A setting for client events, product launches, whiskey tastings, chats by the fireplace, and intimate celebrations and wedding receptions
