129 Rooms

Our 129 bedrooms come in sizes to suit any kind of stay - Sung, Cosy, Cosy Up, Roomy, Roomy Twin and Biggy. The interiors channel the warmth of the Irish landscape, with deep greens, soft pink velvets, and rich timber finishes. Classic silhouettes meet bold details — from scalloped pendants and fringed chairs to striped headboards and asymmetrical mirrors.

Hosting a meeting or party?

From cocktail parties and panel talks in the timeless Library Bar to vibrant nights in the energy-packed Lobby Bar, we've got a setting for every style of gathering. Planning a big one? Head down to our nightclub: Groundwork.

No rip-off policy

Our rooms have everything you need and nothing you don't. Everyone gets water, fresh milk, coffee and tea, and a fridge that's yours to stock with snacks and drinks from our Hox Shop, where you'll find beers, wines and soft drinks at supermarket prices.

Feelin' peckish?

For elevated comfort food, Cantina Valentina, with Peruvian-inspired plates, big sharing vibes, and a mix of relaxed warmth and playful style has you covered. Also in the building is Dollars, inspired by New York deli culture and built around local Irish produce: by day its all about sandwiches and espressos; by night, it flips into a cosy wine bar.

The neighbourhood

Tucked away in a historic building on bustling Exchequer Street, our Dublin home sets you at the cultural heart of the city. Just minutes from must-see attractions, it's where Georgian architecture and world-class dining, centuries-old pubs and indie bookshops meet cobbled lanes, artisan coffee shops and hidden bars.

Did you know?

We expected rich history from a building constructed in 1886, but this landmark site yielded actual medieval treasure during our renovation. Not only did we unearth a medieval wall in the basement, but a silver coin dating from 1270. Cool, eh? You won't mistakenly be getting it in your Hox Shop change, though; it's safely on display in a nearby museum.

How to get here

The Hox is a 15 minute tram ride from Connolly and Heuston stations, and a 30 minute car ride from Dublin airport.
